Krishi Din is observed in Maharashtra to pay tribute to father of green revolution in Maharashtra, Late. Mr. Vasantrao Naik since first July has been birth anniversary of this legendary personality. Mr. Vasantrao Naik was the first promoter of Co-operative sector as an agent of rural growth in Maharashtra. In our college the day is celebrated on 1st of July enthusiastically. Principal Dr. J.A.Lamtule expressed his views on the contribution of Mr. V.P. Naik towards agriculture sector in Maharashtra. He said, Mr. Naik, being from rural agriculture background was well aware of the plight of farmers then. He wanted to change their gloomy picture, so he concentrated on the farming sector. He was also known as the originator of the idea "kase tyachi jamin". Many students expressed their views on the birth anniversary of this legendary personality.
